

FACT SHEET

“The mission of the School of Management is to meet the challenges of a rapidly changing, technology-driven, global society.”

– Dr. Hasan Pirkul
Caruth Professor of Management Information Systems and Dean, UT Dallas School of Management

UT Dallas was established in 1969 by Cecil Green, J. Erik Jonsson and Eugene McDermott, the founders of Texas Instruments, who envisioned a university that would offer truly innovative teaching and research.

UT Dallas has grown from an enrollment of 45 graduate students in 1970 to 15,000 graduate and undergraduate students in 2008-2009. The School of Management is the largest of UT Dallas’ seven schools.

UT Dallas fall 2008 enrollment	–	14,944
School of Management fall 2008 enrollment	–	5,211

The School of Management offers:

- Bachelor of Science degrees in Business Administration, Accounting and Information Management and Finance. Total undergraduate enrollment totals nearly 2,500 students.
- Master’s degrees: Master of Business Administration (MBA), including a distance learning MBA; Master of Science degrees in Management and Administrative Science, Accounting and Information Management, Finance, Information Technology and Management and Supply Chain Management; and a Master of Arts degree in International Management. Master’s-level enrollment totals about 2,600 students.
- Four executive-level MBAs, including two distance learning programs. Total executive degree program enrollment approaches 400 students.
- A Ph.D. degree with a full complement of majors. In fall 2008, the program enrolled nearly 100 students.
- Non-degree graduate-level certificate programs in a variety of areas.

The School of Management is recognized for its faculty research and academic programs.

- U.S. News & World Report ranks the school’s Full-Time MBA program in the top 50 programs in the U.S. and among the top 23 for public universities.
- Business Week and U.S. News & World Report rank the School of Management’s undergraduate program in the nation’s top 100 programs.
- Business Week ranks the school’s Professional MBA program in the second tier of top part-time MBA programs.
- Financial Times has ranked the school’s Executive MBA program as the top program in Texas two years in a row and No. 14 nationwide.
- Based on School of Management faculty’s published research in 24 leading journals during the last five years, the school ranks 17th nationwide in terms of research productivity.
- Financial Times ranks three of the school’s online MBA programs – Global MBA Online, Global Leadership Executive MBA and Project Management – among the top 25 distance learning MBA providers in the world.
- The Institute of Internal Auditors recognizes the school’s internal auditing program — Internal Auditing Education Program — as one of two top programs worldwide.